

EXCESSIVE NOISE

Not just the notes

Friday, March 9, 2018 • 6 p.m.

Fine Arts Library

Not just the notes is a collective dedicated to performing themed concerts with an emphasis on new music and cross-disciplinary collaboration. “Green Paw” is the title of the inaugural concert, which aims to raise awareness of humans’ interactions with the environment. The concert will feature UT Austin student composers, as well as individuals who work in Environmental Science.

Not just the notes is directed by Jessy Eubanks, with co-directors Austin Ali and Aaron Sanchez.
